Utah Nonprofit News

Important News for Utah's Nonprofit Community

The world is and has been a complicated place, simultaneously filled with joy, anger, and despair. This Chinese philosophy of yin and yang recognized that duality thousands of years ago; and we are witnesses to those forces today. This month's Utah Nonprofit News condemns the negative forces in the world and, at the same time, celebrates the positive impact our work has had and will have in the tomorrows to come. June's newsletter, is then, brings both yin and yang to you.

Resist Hate. Embrace Justice.

When I was a young activist in my community the community leaders I followed instilled in me the importance of working for change at a local level. They spoke often about the need to grow and learn and to live in other places but to also return back to the west side (my neighborhood) so that I could lead. Read more...

June 18, 2020 | IAn Online Party with Online Dancing | Bring Your Own Cake

The Event is Virtual, But the Fun is Real

At UNA, we are the community of good people doing good work for good causes. Join us in commemorating three decades of bringing our best to bring out your best. Your best means bringing peace, justice, art, help to the disenfranchised, and most importantly, hope to Utah. It is that hope that we celebrate.

On Thursday, June 18, 2020 at 4:00 pm, we kick off our year-long 30th anniversary celebration with some of the best people in the world (that's you) who do amazing things. This will be a fabulous on-line event and unlike some of the other parties you've attended, you won't need new party attire!

[Note. Please bring your own cake, balloons, and confetti.]
